13 million visitors a year visit Blackpool – the UK's undisputed capital of family fun. Be one of them in 2011!

Nickelodeon Land is brand new at the Pleasure Beach, featuring everyone's favourite characters in a six-acre site loaded with 12 fantastic rides. Across the road at Sandcastle Waterpark, they're gearing up for the arrival of two new high-energy waterslides in the Aztec Temple!

Blackpool's revamped Madame Tussauds is the only place in the UK outside London where you can see brilliant likenesses of all your favourite stars.

And look out this September for Merlin's grisly Tower Dungeon and newly refurbished observation deck – the Blackpool Tower Eye – for the best view in town.

Beautiful Spanish steps link the promenade to the beach, and we've created huge new spaces including the spectacular Tower Festival Headland – with a capacity of 20,000 to host breathtaking year-round events.

Step into the splendour of the newly restored Winter Gardens and enter a world of Victorian glamour in the stunning Floral Hall.

Blackpool's never needed an excuse to have fun, but in case you need inspiration, take a look at our calendar of world-class events.

From amazing fireworks and air displays to dance spectacles, sporting fixtures, concerts with the wow-factor, and Showzam! – our annual festival of magic, circus and new variety – something's sure to take your fancy!

Of course, there's also the magical Blackpool Illuminations, which light up the resort for 66 nights, beginning with the star-studded Switch-On show in early September.

A spa resort, a five-star hotel or a clean and comfy place to lay your head? There's no shortage of quality accommodation choices to suit all budgets. Make your selection at www.visitblackpool.com
