

NEW EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY:

Community Rail Development Officer

Community Rail Lancashire is looking for someone to join its small team, based at Accrington Railway Station. We are looking for a self-motivated, energetic and creative person who is able to work under their own initiative to help develop a range of community-based projects across East Lancashire and the Ribble Valley. These projects will help promote sustainable travel, social inclusion as well as contributing to the regeneration of the area. As a Community Rail Development Officer you will join a team who are working to make a real difference within the community.

Employer: Community Rail Lancashire Ltd.

Salary: £28,785 to £32,878

Days: Full time – 37 hours per week.

Location: Accrington railway station.

This role will provide an important addition to our team and will help us play a vital role in the development and expansion of community rail across East Lancashire and the Ribble Valley with links into West Yorkshire and Greater Manchester and with adjoining Community Rail Partnerships.

For further information and an application form call 01254 386579 or 07487 699341 or email communityrailancashire1@gmail.com .

Closing date for applications is 1200 Friday 27th September, 2019

We are keen to receive applications from a wide range of potential team members, and are happy to discuss all reasonable adjustments to the application and interview process, including bringing a supporter to interview. Flexible working arrangements are also an option. To discuss this, please email communityrailancashire1@gmail.com.
